Tito, of Egypt, is the world's most famous male belly dance artist. Against all odds, he single handedly defied traditions, demystified taboos and redefined belly dance entertainment in Egypt and the whole world. He's an amazing Egyptian dancer, teacher and choreographer, regularly featured on numerous international TV stations and networks.

Born in 1971, Tito began to belly dance at the age of 14. Within a very short period of time he became one of the biggest names in the business. A prominent, technically proficient, innovative and mesmerizing dancer, he is recognized as a leader and trendsetter in the belly dance world. Tito's talents as an entertainer and a gifted prolific instructor are sought after all over the world. He has a master's touch in various styles of belly dance including the classical oriental dance style "Sharqi", Egyptian folkloric styles, Nubian, Khaliji, Ghawazi, Saidi, Candelabra (Shamedaan) and his own signature "Shaabi" style from the streets of Egypt. His classes and workshops are open to all levels of dancers. A wonderful and rare opportunity to study and dance with an international icon!

Tito has been working as a professional dancer in Egypt and has risen very fast to stardom. He trains and performs with his own dance company. His signature show, called "The Tito oriental show", is performed regularly at "Alf leyla weleyla" (1001 Nights) resort in Sharm El Sheikh - Egypt.

In 2004 Tito started teaching and performing outside Egypt (Germany, Australia, Sweden, Canada, Japan, Russia, USA and all over the world). Belly dancers worldwide have raved about his workshops; he has a proven track record of imparting his clever techniques to dancers worldwide.

On stage, Tito is an extremely talented and unparalleled entertainer. As a very creative and a highly versatile performer, he interprets the music through incredible dynamic movements. Proficient in the use of canes, he's the only dancer in the world who performs the "Asaya" dance with four canes. Tito is well known for his ability to reach and consistently thrill the audiences with his amazing performances. He has a very strong stage presence and charisma and he really knows how to keep the party going!

Wherever Tito teaches or performs he leaves his marks. Many of his video clips are very popular on YouTube.com and other websites.
